Note:

When deferred areas are released, the land within the deferred area is classified according to one of three land classes: riparian and wetlands, uplands with specific management objectives or uplands with general management objectives.

- DNR is currently developing a long-term conservation strategy for the marbled murrelet. For all Alternatives, it was assumed that the long-term strategy would involve landscape management of marbled murrelet habitat. Therefore, for modeling the Alternatives, currently identified and deferred marbled murrelet habitat was released and put into either “riparian and wetlands” or the “uplands with specific management objectives” land class.
